

Ludwig Weber

Brief profile

Born 1972 in Glarus
Resident in Canton Glarus

Quality Manager at PHARCONS Pharma
Consulting GmbH

Certified technical expert HF corporate processes
Certified food technologist HFP

Main working responsibilities

Quality

Support in the development and maintenance of QM systems, qualifications of suppliers and external service providers, revision and creation of SOPs, monitoring cleaning validation, preparation, execution and follow-up of external audits and self-inspections, preparation and cooperation in the implementation and follow-up of measures for FSSC and label audits, structure and maintenance as well as basic training on the topics of occupational safety and health protection, master data maintenance ERP.

Regulatory Affairs

Collaboration in the preparation of quality documents for new registrations in Australia.

Production processes

Profound experience in production processes of various product lines, process monitoring and optimization, quality control on the line, ensuring interfaces with QC and planning, train and lead employees etc.

SAP operator

Work preparation, controls and material releases, corrections, training of deputy SAP operators etc.

Professional basis

Education

Certified food technologist HF (14-17)
Certified technical expert HF corporate processes (07-08)
Beer brewer (96-99)
Tin pipe maker (89-93).

Employment history

Quality Assurance Manager (GMP-area), QA employee/Quality Manager, project staff master data, department head in production, deputy shift leader, SAP-operator, spray dryer, column leader, Beer brewer, tin pipe maker.

Professional Training

Internal RA training (currently in progress),
Supplier qualification according to GMP,
Internal and external training in various areas
(ISO/HACCP/ERP etc.)

Membership

Megra (Central European Society for Regulatory Affairs)